Code of Conduct for Members of Council, Local Boards & Advisory Committees

Policy Type: Corporate Policy (Approved by Council)Date Approved: ~~May 28, 2018~~Last Revision:*Department: AdministrationStaff Report:*By-Law No.:

Policy Statement

Policy direction for the behaviour of Members of Council, Local Boards & Advisory Committees in the performance of their duties and responsibilities as elected and appointed community representatives.

This Policy replaces POL.COR.07.07 being the Code of Conduct for Members of Council, Local Boards & Advisory Committees.

Purpose

Subsection 223.2(1) of the Municipal Act, 2001 authorizes a Municipality to establish Codes of Conduct for Members.

Subsection 223.3(1) also authorizes a Municipality to appoint an Integrity Commissioner who is responsible for performing in an independent manner the functions assigned by Council with regard to the application of a Code of Conduct with respect to:

- the application of the Code of Conduct;
- the application of any procedures, rules and policies of the Municipality and Local Boards governing the ethical behaviour of Members;
- the application of sections 5, 5.1 and 5.2 of the Municipal Conflict of Interest Act to Members;
- requests by Members for advice about obligations under the Code of Conduct, procedures, rules, policies or the Municipal Conflict of Interest Act; and
- the provision of education/information to Members, the Municipality and the public about the Municipality's Codes of Conduct for Members and about the Municipal Conflict of Interest Act.

The Code of Conduct sets minimum standards for the behaviour of Members in carrying out their functions. It has been developed to assist Members of Council, Local Boards and Advisory Committees to:

Code of Conduct for Members of Council, Local Boards & Advisory Committees

1. Understand the standards of conduct that are expected of them, and the law that applies in relation to these standards;
2. Fulfill their duty to act honestly and exercise reasonable care and diligence; and
3. Act in a way that enhances public confidence in local government.

Statement of Principal

A written Code of Conduct helps to ensure that Members of Council, Local Boards and Advisory Committees of the Municipality share a common understanding of acceptable conduct. These standards are designed to provide a reference guide and a supplement to the legislative parameters within which the Members must operate. These standards for Members exist to enhance public confidence that the Town of The Blue Mountain's elected and appointed representatives will serve the public with integrity, justice and courtesy.

The Town of The Blue Mountain's Code of Conduct is a general standard that augments Provincial laws and Municipal policies and by-laws that govern conduct. It is not intended to replace personal ethics.

This Code of Conduct is consistent with the existing statutes governing the conduct of Members. (i.e. the Municipal Act, 2001, the Municipal Conflict of Interest Act and the Municipal Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act). The Criminal Code of Canada also governs the conduct of Members. Members are expected to uphold the letter and spirit of the laws of Canada, Ontario and the laws and policies adopted by Council, Local Boards and Advisory Committees.

All Members to whom this Code of Conduct apply shall serve their citizens in a conscientious and diligent manner. No Member shall use the influence of office for any purpose other than the exercise of their official duties. Members shall seek to avoid conflicts of interest, both apparent and real. Members shall perform their duties and arrange their public and private affairs in a manner that promotes public confidence and will bear public scrutiny.

Application

This policy applies to Members of Council, Local Boards and Advisory Committees of The Corporation of the Town of The Blue Mountains in the performance of their duties and responsibilities as elected/appointed community representatives. It is understood that this applies at all times and in all places while a Person is subject to this Code of Conduct.

This policy applies to all Members; however a Code of Conduct for Advisory Committee Members is attached as Appendix D. Provisions of the Code of Conduct for Members of Council, Local Boards and Advisory Committees which are relevant only to Members of Council have been eliminated from the specific Code of Conduct for Members of Local Boards and Advisory Committees. The definitions, principles and intent of the overarching Code of Conduct policy will apply and may be referred to for clarification and interpretative assistance in understanding the Code of Conduct for Members of Local Boards and Advisory Committees.

- ~~stalking someone; and~~
- ~~physically aggressive behaviours, including hitting, shoving, standing excessively close to someone in an aggressive manner, pushing, kicking, throwing an object at someone, physically restraining someone or any other form of physical or sexual Assault.~~

Commented [SE6]: Integrity Commissioner do not have jurisdiction to receive or review matters of a criminal nature consistent with the Criminal Code of Canada. As a result, a definition of Violence in the Code is problematic because it infers that the IC will be able to determine if a Member's conduct constitutes "Violence". I would recommend removing "Violence" from the Definitions section.

Gifts and Benefits

Members shall not accept a fee, advance, gift or personal benefit that is connected directly or indirectly with the performance of their duties of office, unless permitted by the exceptions listed below.

For these purposes, a fee or advance paid to, or a gift or benefit provided with the Member's knowledge to an Immediate Relative, or to a Member's Employee that is connected directly or indirectly to the performance of the Member's duties is deemed to be a gift to that Member.

- e) a suitable memento of a function honouring the Member;

 - iii. the Person extending the invitation, or a representative of the organization is in attendance; and
 - iv. the value is reasonable, and the invitations are infrequent.
- h) communication to the offices of a Member, including subscriptions to newspapers and periodicals.

In the case of categories (b), (e), (f), (g) and (h), if the value of the gift or benefit exceeds $300, or if the total value received from any one source over a twelve (12) month period exceeds $300, the Member shall within thirty (30) days of receipt of the gift or of reaching the annual limit, file a disclosure statement (attached as Appendix B - Disclosure Statement) with the Clerk.

The disclosure statement must indicate:

2. Its source and date of receipt;
3. The circumstances under which it was given or received;
4. Its estimated value;
5. What the recipient intends to do with the gift; and
6. Whether any gift will at any point become the property of the Town.

All disclosure statements will be a matter of public record.

On receiving a disclosure statement, the Clerk shall make the disclosure statement public. If a member of the public believes the Member has not conformed to the requirements of the Code of Conduct with respect to accepting gifts and benefits, they may request the Integrity Commissioner examine the statement to ascertain whether the receipt of gift or benefit might, in their opinion, create a conflict between a private interest and the public duty of the Member. If the Integrity Commissioner makes that preliminary determination, they shall call upon the Member to justify receipt of the gift or benefit.

Should the Integrity Commissioner determine that receipt was inappropriate, they may direct the Member to return the gift, reimburse the donor for the value of any gift or benefit already consumed, or forfeit the gift, or remit the value of any gift or benefit not already consumed to the Town.

Except in the case of (a), (c), (f) and (g), a Member may not accept a gift or benefit worth in excess of $500 from one source during a calendar year, unless it falls within an exemption.

To clarify, if a Member accepts a gift over $300, a disclosure statement must be completed. A member is not permitted to accept a gift over $500 unless they fall under (a), (c), (g) and (f).

This includes attempts to secure preferential treatment beyond activities in which Members normally engage on behalf of their constituents as part of their official duties. Prohibited conduct also includes the holding out of the prospect or promise of future advantage through a Member's supposed influence within Council or the Local Board in return for present actions or inaction.

For the purposes of this provision, "private advantage" does not include a matter that:

- a) Is of general application;
- b) Affects a Member, their Immediate Relative, Employees, friends, or associates, business or otherwise as one of a broad class of Persons; and/or
- c) Concerns the remuneration or benefits of a Member in their role with the Town.

Members shall be respectful of the fact that Employees work for the Town as a body corporate and are charged with making recommendations that reflect their professional expertise and corporate perspective. Members must not falsely or maliciously injure the professional reputation of an Employee. Members shall be respectful of the fact that Employees carry out the directions of Council and administer the policies of the Municipality and are required to do so without any undue influence from any individual Member or group of Members.

Where a Member has a concern about personnel matters, he or she should speak with the Mayor and the CAO about the concern or alternatively raise the issue with Council during an in camera session.

Members must not invite or pressure any Employee to engage in partisan political activity nor subject Employees to discrimination or reprisal for refusing to engage in such activities.

Members are not to engage in any course of conduct or make comments that would constitute Harassment as defined by the Town's Workplace Harassment and Human Rights policies and the Ontario Human Rights Code; and
3. Members are responsible for avoiding communications that may constitute Harassment, Intimidation, Bullying or disrespectful behavior, whether in Person, in writing, by public comment and on-line, including via Social Media.

A Member may be found to have breached the Code if any of the above have occurred. A pattern of conduct in which a Member's actions are Intimidating, uncivil, disrespectful or rude, may lead to a finding of Harassment. A pattern of behavior that is perceived to be harmful (e.g. disrespectful or frustrating) by the target, may constitute Harassment or Intimidation even if the Member did not intend their behavior to have that effect.

Commented [SE7]: May – only the IC can determine if a Member has breached the Code

Appendix A - Protocol Policy for Complaints Related to MembersPART A - INFORMAL COMPLAINT PROCEDURE

Individuals are encouraged to use the Informal Complaint Procedure first to address behaviour or activity of a Member that they believe violates the Code of Conduct. With the consent of the Complainant and the Respondent, the Integrity Commissioner may participate in this process. The parties are encouraged to take advantage of the Integrity Commissioner's potential role as a mediator/conciliator of issues relating to a Complaint. The Informal process is confidential, and secrecy shall be maintained by all Members participating in an informal process.

An informal process will not be a formally recorded process. A Complainant is encouraged to detail their issues to the Respondent prior to any informal meetings to ensure both parties are aware of the concerns and ample opportunity is provided for the Respondent to reflect and research the issues raised by the Complainant.

Any individual, including members of the public, who identifies, or witnesses conduct by a Member that appears to contravene the Code of Conduct may address the conduct in the following manner:

1. Advise the Member that the conduct appears to contravene the Code of Conduct. Advising the Member may be completed in Person, by e-mail, formal letter or phone call. If in Person or via telephone, ensure that a witness is present.

6. Ask the Integrity Commissioner to participate in an informal discussion of the Complaint with the Member to resolve the issue;
7. If applicable, confirm to the Member that their response is satisfactory, or advise the Member that their response is unsatisfactory; and
8. Consider a Formal Complaint Procedure as set out in Part B, or any other applicable legal process.

The Informal Complaint Process is not a precondition to making a formal Complaint. However, it is highly encouraged in the spirit of fair treatment for everyone concerned. Early intervention is key to keeping behaviors and issues from escalating. Individuals are encouraged to seek guidance from the Integrity Commissioner on how to conduct the informal Complaint process.
